

How old are most lobsters when they are "keepers"?

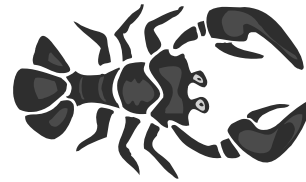

What do lobster catchers call a lobster that's too small to keep?

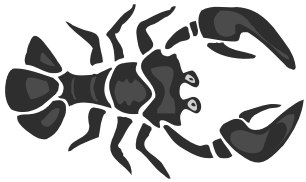

Is a lobster's skeleton on the inside or the outside?

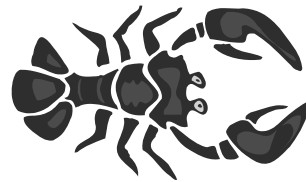

What is the nickname lobstermen have for lobsters?

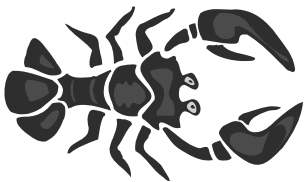

What is a lobster's most important sense?

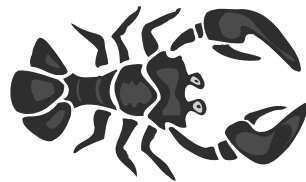

How many legs does a lobster have?

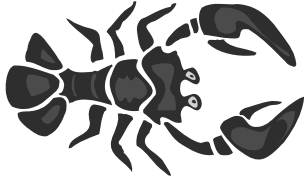

Where does the American lobster live?
(What is its range?)

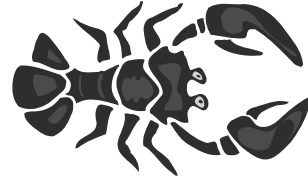

When do lobsters hunt for food?

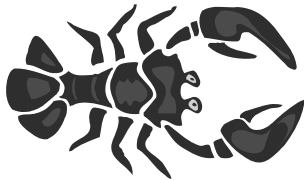

ANSWER: A short

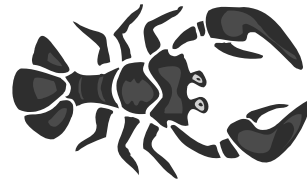

ANSWER: Five to seven years old

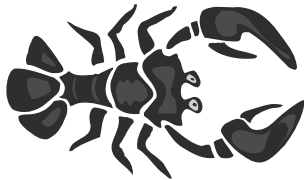

ANSWER: "Bugs"

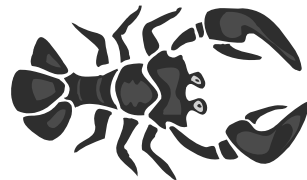

ANSWER: Outside (exoskeleton)

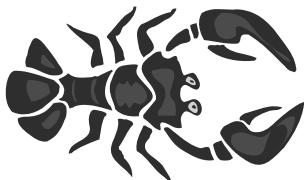

ANSWER: Ten

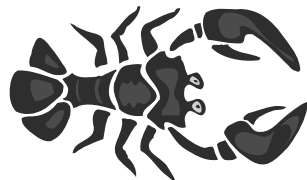

ANSWER: Its sense of smell

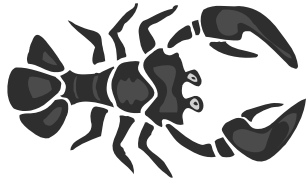

ANSWER: At night

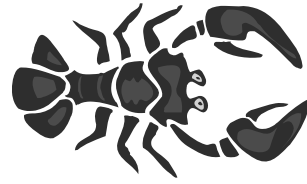

ANSWER: From Canada to North Carolina

How do lobsters grow bigger?

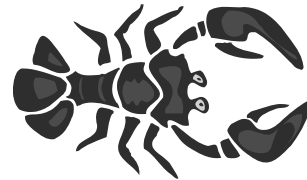

Does a lobster see well?

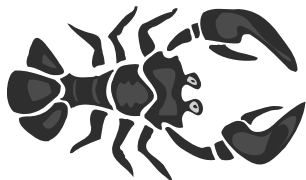

What part of the lobster must a lobster harvester measure to make sure it's legal size?

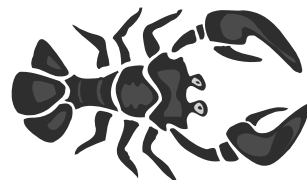

There is only one state that has a maximum legal size for lobsters. What state is it?

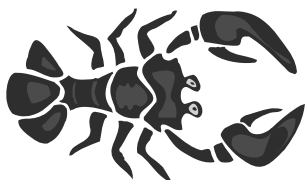

What color pigments make up a lobster's color?

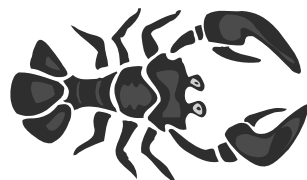

Where do lobsters live?

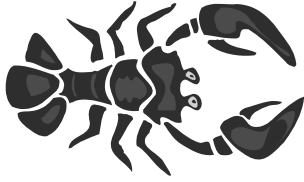

Do lobsters ever float near the top of the ocean?

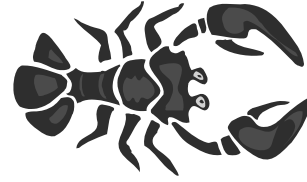

What color is a cooked lobster?

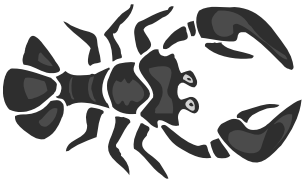

ANSWER: No, a lobster can't see well

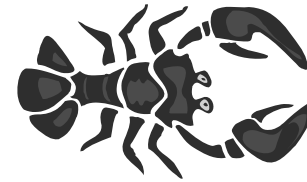

ANSWER: They molt (shed their shells and replace it with new growth)

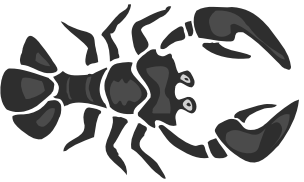

ANSWER: Maine

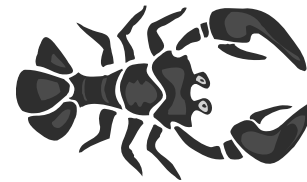

ANSWER: The carapace

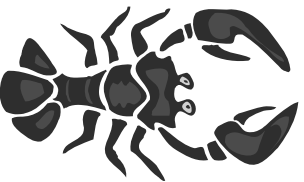

ANSWER: At the bottom of the ocean

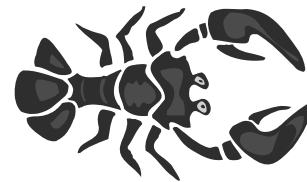

ANSWER: Blue, yellow, & red

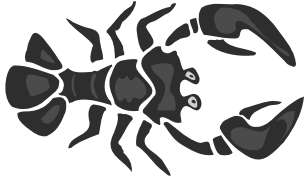

ANSWER: Red

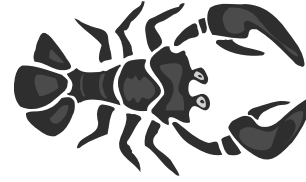

ANSWER: Yes, when they're babies called plankton

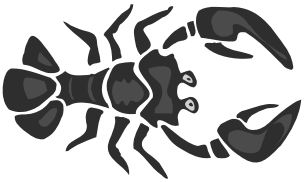

Why are lobsters banded after they're caught?

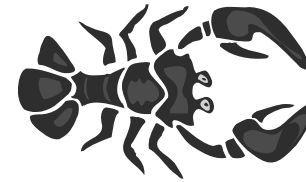

What is a lobster with eggs called?

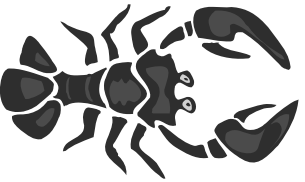

What are the names of a lobster's front claws?

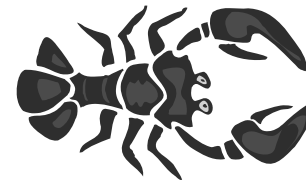

How old can lobsters live to be?

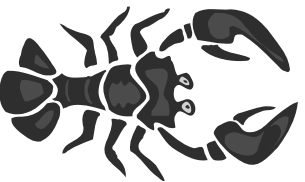

Name one other animal that is related to the lobster (another crustacean).

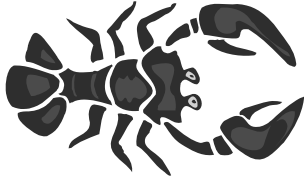

How can you tell a male lobster from a female lobster?

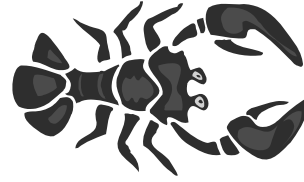

How do lobsters make a quick escape underwater?

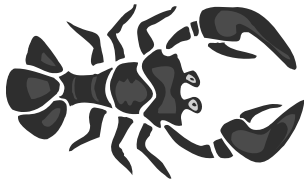

ANSWER: A "berried" female

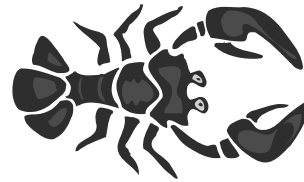

ANSWER: So they won't eat each other in the lobster pound

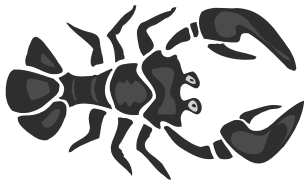

ANSWER: A hundred years old

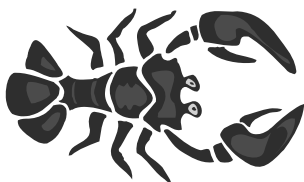

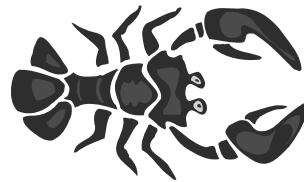

ANSWER: Crusher claw and pincer or ripper claw

ANSWER: By looking at the first pair of swimmerets closest to the body (male swimmerets are hard and bony, while female swimmerets are soft and feathery)

ANSWER: Crab, shrimp, barnacle

ANSWER: Backwards (by flapping its tail)

